Support for Special Populations

IEP Goals

Intervention specialists and related service providers will provide one-on-one tutoring and support for all students on their caseload as dictated by a student’s IEP. This support can be virtual, in-person, or a combination.

504 Plans

Modifications and accommodations will be provided by the regular classroom teacher. The appropriate building guidance counselor will monitor all 504 plans.
Student Accountability & Attendance

ENSURING STUDENTS ARE ACADEMICALLY ENGAGED

- Meet the Ohio Department of Education (ODE)’s minimum hours guidelines
- Daily/weekly schedules will be developed by teachers & provided for students and families
  - Designed to meet required hours and be developmentally appropriate
- Student attendance will be tracked in the following ways:
  - Attendance in synchronous teacher-led activities
  - Completion of asynchronous activities

Teacher Accountability & Support

Teachers will work from the buildings

Planning

Begin to plan thoughtfully about the physical return of students and how they can reconfigure their classroom to ensure safe social distancing.

Materials

Have all of their materials and classroom resources available to them for teaching.

Support

Get technology & curriculum support as needed.

Collaboration

Ask questions and plan for instruction with their colleagues and administrator(s).
Food Service

- Remote instruction: will be provided to students who qualify for free and/or reduced lunch; similar to process in spring & summer
- In-person instruction: will be available for all students
- The first quarter will allow the administration and food service personnel to thoughtfully plan for the safe in-person operation of breakfast and lunch at each building.
Athletics

SUMMER WORKOUTS
Currently 47 athletes and 5 adults

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
Working closely with coaches, student athletes and families

HEALTH & SAFETY
Protocol in place developed with guidance from the Ohio High School Athletic Association

COMPETITION
Plan in place to determine if we will travel to competition against schools in red counties
Thank you.
